Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Sig. Simon has been called to Leadville by the death of his 14-year-old niece.

Mrs. P. A. Simpkins has so far recovered from her sickness as to be able Thursday next to return to her home from the hospital.

The Salt Lake Photographic Supply company of west Third South street, has sold out to E. E. Darling, who is now in possession.

The Twin Falls Canal company reports a steady and heavy sale of lands under the grand canal. Work is going on without delay on the great plan.

Chairman C. B. Hurt of the Idaho world's fair commission, is busy collecting exhibits from all over the state to ship as soon as possible to St. Louis.

The Salt Lake Real Estate association is holding its first annual meeting this afternoon, at the Commercial club, where the members will also enjoy a luncheon.

Architects J. A. Headlund & Co. are completing plans for a 50x60 feet two story brick business block to be erected at Murray at a cost of $4,000 for Fred Wach of that city.

D. company, First infantry, gave a character ball in its armory last night, with 60 people present. There were a number of fine costumes, and the evening was much enjoyed.

Local merchants say that people have so loaded up at the "Clearance sales" that they are not buying much now at "regular prices." Consequently, it is quiet for the present in local business circles.

Elder Andrew Jensen and Bishop Carl A. Ek will leave Saturday next for a tour of the southern part of the state in the interest of the new Stockholm meetinghouse. Their work will be principally among the Scandinavians.

The committee appointed by the recent Birmingham Junction massmeeting to promote the Utah Lake proposition will meet in a few days to take the preliminary steps; but it can do much until the return of the state engineer from Washington.

R. C. Kerens of St. Louis has presented the Tomahawk, Nev., Catholic church with 14 oil paintings representing "Stations of the cross." This is in appreciation of the efforts made by Rev. Butler to establish a church in that mining camp.

C. M. Wood, at one time manager of the New York Life Insurance company in this city, stopped off here yesterday on his way home from the east. Mr. Wood now represents the New York Life at Portland, Or., and is said to be doing a good business.

Warren Jackman is at the Holy Cross hospital in a critical condition from injuries received Sunday evening in the Daily-West mine at Park City. The unfortunate man was caught in a cave-in and very badly crushed, his heart and lungs both being affected.

Local clothing druggists say that the trade for spring and summer goods has just closed, and that it has been better than it was last year. There is quite a change in the styles, along the line of comfort and attractive but not showy patterns.

There is considerable complaint about town because citizens and business houses are not compelled to clean their sidewalks. Slush and ice accumulate, and the slippery conditions make it dangerous for pedestrians. People fall every day and hurt themselves in consequence.

The big generator at the electrical power station is now carrying a full load. It is propelling the entire street railway system, and is doing the work of over a dozen old Edison machines.

When the Utah Light & Railway company has perfected the rearrangement of its central station plant, that plant will be one of the most complete in the country.

W. H. Paine, at one time a prominent figure in the colored population of Salt Lake, died at the county infirmary yesterday at the age of 65. He will be remembered by old-timers as proprietor of a barber shop, which was the bon ton establishment of the town 25 years ago on East First South street. He came here in about 1870 and was for many years industrious in politics.

A semi-vertical system of handwriting is to be experimented with in two of the public schools of this city as against the vertical which has been in vogue for some years past and which has probably resulted in turning out more plain writing pupils than most people imagine. Still there are business men who oppose it. These desire that a change be made.

Prof. P. A. Cook gave a piano recital last evening, at the Ladies' Literary clubhouse, introducing his pupil, Miss Irene, who has received a very flattering offer from the government to teach school in the Philippines and has asked the board of education to release him so that he may accept the offer. The board will probably release Mr. Whipple at its next meeting and he will leave this city for the Philippines about the first of March.

Myrtle Lodge Knights of Pythias gave a largely attended reception and banquet last night, in honor of its new membership. There were about 150 persons present, and a fine menu was presented. Hon. Fisher Harris was toastmaster, and the result was that there were many interesting and witty speeches which extended until after midnight.

Grand Chancellor Standish gave an excellent address on Pythianism in which the features of the order were well set forth, as well as the fact that the Pythians were making rapid advances in Utah. Grand Master at Arms Furnessworth, in his speech, stated that Myrtle lodge was organized in 1871, and there are now four lodges in Salt Lake, all doing good work for Pythianism. The evening was very much enjoyed.

The colored Baptists are to try it again. Two deaths and a resignation have been out of three pasted within two years, but still they are not discouraged, and are ready for another attempt. This is mostly due to the unflagging efforts of Rev. Bruce Kinney, the local Baptist missionary superintendent. He has been on a sharp look-out for some time, and has finally secured Rev. Charles C. Boethe of Pratt City, Ala., who has been in the ministry for 23 years. For some time he has been a special lecturer on Biblical exegesis at Booker T. Washington Tuskegee institute, and has held positions under the Baptist Home Missionary society. Mrs. Boethe is principal of one of the public schools of Pratt City and their son graduates in medicine this year.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the year was that of Miss Grace Jacobs and Lieut. S. A. White, which took place last night at the bride's home. Dr. W. A. Paden performed the ceremony to the strains of "Cavalleria Rusticana," the bridal party standing under a beautiful canopy of smilax caught overhead with a great floral bell. Capt. Harbison was best man, and a number of the intimate friends of the bride assisted at the reception. Lieut. and Mrs. White left at midnight for San Francisco whence they will sail shortly for Manila.

Another pretty wedding of yesterday was that of Miss Maud Lewis and Mr. J. L. Craig, the ceremony being performed at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mr. T. B. Lewis. Bishop C. E. Whiting officiated and later an elaborate luncheon was served, only the relatives and intimate friends being present. The rooms were effectively decorated, and the affair altogether a charming one. Mr. and Mrs. Craig left for the afternoon for an eastern trip, after which they will return here to reside.

The "necktie and apron party" given by the Sunset club last night was a successful affair in all details. The event took place at Christensen's and was largely attended.

The Cleofan met yesterday and continued the study of "As You Like It." Mrs. Annette Culmer was chairman, and Miss Emmeline Wells gave critical comments on the play.

Miss La Von Polce of Brigham is spending this week in Salt Lake. She is the guest of Mrs. G. L. Savage.

Mrs. Jessie Eldridge Southwick of Boston will give a dramatic recital at the Congregational church next Monday night under the auspices of the Pierpont school of oratory and physical culture. Her readings will include scenes from "Ben Hur" and "Macbeth."

Mrs. A. O. Melvin will assist with vocal numbers.

Serofolia the Cause.

Eczema, catarrh, hip disease, white swelling, and even consumption have their origin in serofolia condition. With the slightest taint of serofolia in the blood, there is no safety. The remedy for this disease in all its forms is Hood's sarsaparilla, which goes to the root of the trouble and expels all impurities and disease germs from the blood.

AUDITOR FELT GETTING ANXIOUS.

Time to Make Up the Pay Rolls But No Information on the Salary Question.

APPEALS TO CITY ATTORNEY.

Also Calls on Heads of Departments For List of Employees Under Their Particular Direction.

An opinion will soon be handed down by City Attorney Day upon the question as to whether or not the present city officials will be allowed the benefit of the increased salaries granted by the council last December, before the present administration took control of the municipality. Now that the first month of the new administration is about ended and it is time to make up the payroll of the city officials, City Auditor Felt is anxious to know whether he should make up the payrolls according to the salaries provided in the revised ordinances or whether the salaries shall remain the same as under the old ordinances.

AUDITOR FELT'S LETTER.

He has accordingly written for an opinion from the city attorney on that question. His communication is as follows:

"Will you kindly advise me as to the legal status of the ordinance or ordinance passed by the late city council in December, 1903, relative to the salaries of city officers, deputies, et al., as applicable to present incumbents of these offices?"

"Can this city legally issue warrants to the present city officers, deputies, et al., in accordance with the salaries fixed by ordinance in December last?"

SUPREME COURT DECISION.

The supreme court has held that the salaries of state officials can be raised during their term of office without conflicting with the constitution or the statutes of the state. It has also held that a city council cannot change the salary of an appointive or elective officer during the term for which he is appointed or elected. The facts in connection with this increase are quite different from those upon which the supreme court has had to pass, hence an opinion from the city attorney on the legality of the increase will be awaited with interest.

AN ECONOMY MOVE.

City Auditor Felt has also sent a communication to the head of each department of the city government, asking them to furnish him with a list of employees, the position held by each, the amount of pay and the authorization for the employment of each person in all the city departments, so that the payrolls may be properly audited before being submitted to the council. The letter of the auditor on that subject follows:

"In order to avoid delay in the audit of the pay rolls for the last half of January, I shall make a request of you."

"Owing to the shortness of the time between receipt of the pay rolls for the first half of January and the meeting of the city council, and the pressing nature of the city's financial affairs, it is necessary to send the rolls to the council verified only as to rate paid and accuracy of extensions and footings."

"Such a condition is very undesirable and one that ought not to be perpetuated, hence I earnestly request that you furnish this office with a list of employees, showing their position, rate of pay and when the council authorized such employment."

"Should there be any person employed not expressly authorized by the council, kindly inform me with a list of names, showing their position, rate of pay and when the council authorized such employment."

"An early reply will be appreciated, and it is desired that the next pay rolls may be properly audited and with the auditing their submission to the council."

Mr. William S. Crane, of California, Md., suffered for years from rheumatism and lumbago. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure. This liniment is for sale by all druggists.

A GOOD SQUARE MEAL.

Prisoner Got it from Jail Kitchen and Then Took His Departure.

Yesterday afternoon Officer J. D. Brown saw a man on the street begging. He promptly arrested the individual and took him to the police station. The man gave his name as James Halley. He was booked for vagrancy and ordered locked up. Through some mistake, he was placed in the kitchen of the new jail instead of in a cell. Halley was hungry and as soon as he recovered from his sorrow, he began to look about him. He saw a large pot of beans, a loaf of bread and other delicacies, and he fell to with a vengeance. In a few minutes the grub was all gone. Halley then looked about him again and to his delight discovered that a door leading to the outer world was unlocked. He opened it quickly and fled. Now they are looking for Mr. Halley.

DIED OF HIS INJURIES.

Charles W. Needham Passes Away as a Result of Street Car Accident.

As a result of injuries received in a street car accident New Year's night, Charles W. Needham passed away at the Holy Cross hospital yesterday. As will no doubt be remembered, Mr. Needham, while alighting from a car at the corner of Fourth North and Fifth West streets, slipped and fell, the wheels of the car passing over his right leg. Two weeks later the limb was amputated, but the patient never rallied from the shock and died yesterday.

The unfortunate man had but one leg at the time of the accident, having lost the other through falling on the ice 15 years ago. Mr. Needham was a teamster by occupation and had a host of friends who will be pained to hear of his demise. He was a native of this city, being born here Dec. 1, 1868. The funeral will be held from the Twenty-eighth ward meetinghouse tomorrow at 2 p. m.

Charles W. Needham was the son of Mary Ann Furnace and Jonathan Needham, old and highly respected residents of this city.

A cordial invitation is extended to the Priesthood and Saints generally.

JOHN COOK, President.

N. V. JONES, C. L. MILLER, Counselors.

Congratulations.

Mr. John H. Cullom, Editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a letter of congratulation to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as follows: "Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croup spells and he would be very sick. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of this remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take and our babies really like it. Another is that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk of giving an overdose. I congratulate you upon the success of your remedy." For sale by all druggists.
